Bloomfield High School, Bloomfield, Connecticut

Presents

The Forty-First Edition of

THE TATTLER

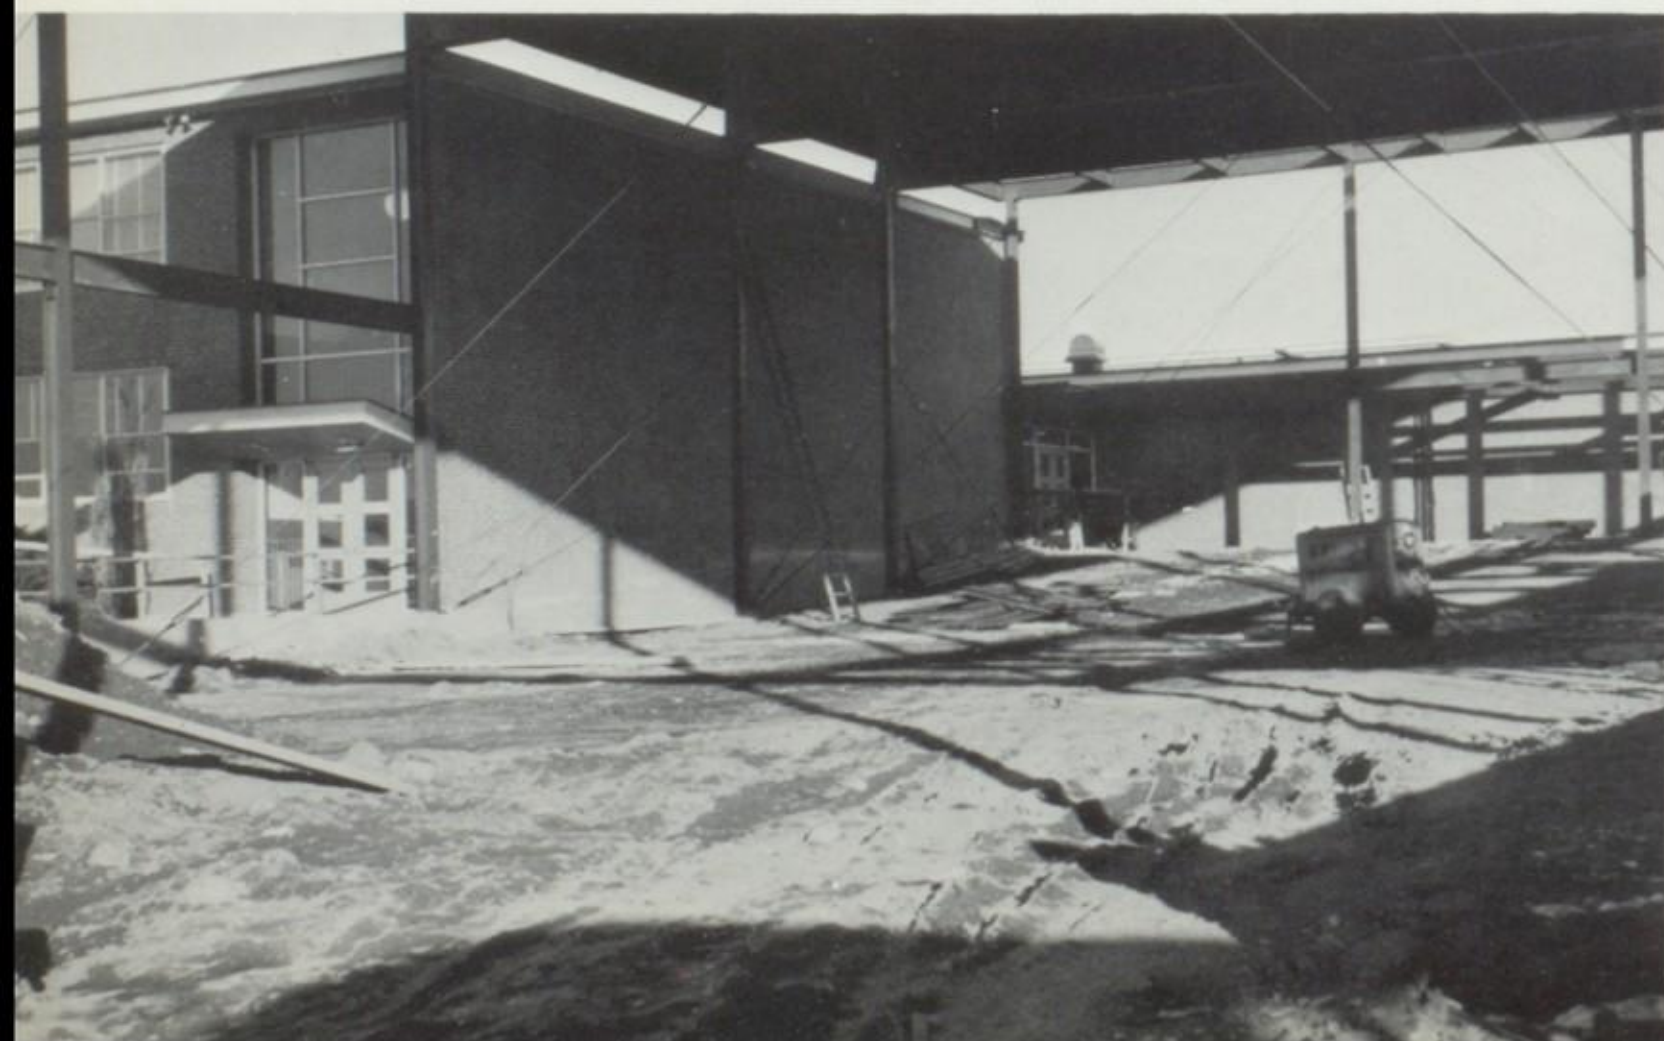

THEN

Bloomfield High School has changed greatly during our stay. We of the class of '62 are the only students who entered those hallowed halls directly from grammar school. As we prepare to leave, we find that not only is the building too small to handle a combined junior and senior high, but is also incapable of accommodating Bloomfield's greatly expanding number of high school students. We will forever remember the crashing hammers and pounding of girders as the original seven hundred student capacity was enlarged to twelve hundred. Next year's students will have the benefit of science and language laboratories, extended library facilities, as well as a science lecture hall. Additional typing, drafting, and music rooms and an enlarged cafeteria are also planned. With the arrival of the new auditorium, the class of '62 will once again make the record books as the last class to graduate in the gymnasium.

Thus, we who knew B.H.S. so well, will probably need guiding by future underclassmen when we return to survey our alma mater.

FOREWORD

In this, the Forty-first Edition of The Tattler, we the Class of 1962 have recorded the people and the events that most reflect our four years at Bloomfield High School. We hope that in years to come that this book will enable us to remember vividly the classmates, the teachers, and the activities that played a large part in formulating our lives.

Finally, we of the Class of 1962 have attempted to immortalize and romanticize our years at B.H.S. by likening them to the days when Knighthood was in Flower.

IN MEMORIAM
Mr. Norman Diamond

*So live, that when thy summons comes to join
The innumerable caravan which moves
To that mysterious realm, where each shall take
His chamber in the silent halls of death,
Then go not, like the quarry-slave at night,
Scourged to his dungeon, but, sustained and soothed
By an unfaltering trust, approach thy grave,
Like one that wraps the drapery of his couch
About him, and lies down to pleasant dreams.*

FROM THE ARCHIVES

We, the members of the class of 1962, will always be proud of the unique record we have left behind.

Under the able leadership of president, Joe Piscatella; vice-president Elliott Milstein; secretary, Bonnie Rock; and treasurer, Mary Lee, our first year of life at B.H.S. was marked with many successful events. Our freshman student council representatives were David Redmond, Russ Fleet, Gloria Mooney and Mary D'Esopo.

We planned our freshman dance, "Bali Hai," under the chairmanship of Elliott Milstein. The South Pacific was brought to Bloomfield through palm trees, sailors, and hula dancers. Dave Redmond and Donna Wynings were elected king and queen.

The Freshman Citizenship Awards were given to Joe Piscatella and Mary Lee.

In our sophomore year, considered our best by some, Joe Piscatella and Mary Lee were re-elected to their respective positions. Dave Redmond was made vice-president, and Sandy Donulak, secretary. Representing us on the Student Council were Nan Stenstrom, Donna O'Connell, Russ Fleet and Terry Goodwin.

We presented "23 Skidoo," our Roaring Twenties dance under the chairmanship of Donna O'Connell and Elliott Milstein. The outstanding feature of the dance was a show in our caberet style Club '62. This never-to-be-forgotten show was directed by Elaine Bacinkas and Terry Goodwin. Marked by a great deal of originality, this dance showed the school that the class of '62 was able to work together and produce a masterpiece!

At last we were upperclassmen. Joe Piscatella began his third term, and Dave Redmond and Sandy Donulak were also re-elected. Bea Bruist was given charge of the money bags. Sol Cicero, Terry Goodwin, Donna O'Connell, and Nan Stenstrom were our student council representatives, while President Joe was made president of the organization.

Our athletic prowess was evident as the basketball team won the state championship. Don Harris, Rich Holmes, Wayne Wood and Sol Cicero were the outstanding members of our class on the court.

When Honor Society inductions were held, Elaine Menchel, Mary D'Esopo, Rita Goldstein, Gloria Mooney, Alice Merritt, and Judy Stern became members.

The event we had been planning and waiting for since our freshman year became a reality on May 13, 1961. "Prelude to Summer," our junior prom, was a huge success under the chairmanship of Terry Goodwin and Nan Stenstrom. The gym became a Spring garden enwreathed in colorful garlands, highlighting a wishing well. Al Jarvis and his orchestra set a dreamy mood for our formal dance. Don Harris and Mary Lee were our king and queen. Joe Piscatella, Donna Wynings, Al Gamer, Cathy Calabretta, Dave Redmond, Bonnie Rock, Terry Goodwin and Nan Stenstrom formed the court.

At the final awards assembly Phil Blackman won the Harvard Book Prize, Steve Horne, the Yale Book Prize, and Terry Goodwin, the Trinity Book Prize. Judy Stern was given the American History Award. Also at this time Laurel Girls' State and Nutmeg Boys' State representatives were announced. Mary Lee, Alice Merritt, Joe Piscatella, and Dave Redmond, respectively, were elected. Nan Stenstrom and Terry Goodwin were chosen as alternates.

The year concluded with the announcement of graduation honor ushers. Those chosen were Phil Blackman, Terry Goodwin, Steve Horne, Elliott Milstein, Joe Piscatella, Dave Redmond, Linda Adoff, Linda Bishop, Elaine Menchel, Alice Merritt, Gloria Mooney, and Judy Stern.

With anticipation of a final blaze of glory we of the class of '62 returned in September for the last time. Joe "F.D.R." Piscatella was elected for the fourth time, and was once again assisted by Dave Redmond. Sandy Donaluk kept the records and Mary Lee was responsible for the finances.

Once again '62 showed its originality by replacing the traditional class play with a variety show. Elaine Bacinskas and Wayne Wood directed this successful affair, which proved that we had talent.

Bonnie Rock and Elliott Milstein headed the committees for Serenade '62. The gym was transformed into a bevy of ever-changing colors by the use of spotlights. The centerpiece consisted of two large Christmas ornaments with streamers leading to every part of the room. Once again, Al Jarvis provided music for our dancing pleasure. Ethel Plourde was crowned Miss Serenade, and Mary Lee and Nancy Miller were made her attendants.

In the spring many Senior activities came at once. Our outing, reception, and banquet paved the way for the more serious side of senior year, baccalaureate and graduation.

We, the class of 1962, extend our deepest appreciation to our class advisors, Miss Evelyn Paine, Mr. Allan Brown and Mr. James Shaw.

JUNIOR PROM

Class Prophecy

While looking through the pages of the World Gazette, I noticed the names of many of my former classmates at Bloomfield High.

On the front page was a headline announcing that Philip Blackman and Jonathan Peck, well-known scientists, have been awarded a General Electric grant by president Dave Story. The next column contained the story of Alice Merritt's election as Speaker of the House. She replaces David Redmond, who was called as an advisor to our president, Joe Piscatella.

Also, I was happy to read that Barbara Gagliarducci and Donna Rampini had finally won their case against the McCoys, aided by the oratory of lawyers Linda Bishop and Joanne Jankowski. Due to a misunderstanding in court between the two parties, Joan Clifford and Barbara Soucie, two competent nurses, were called to the scene. Judge Bob Ovseychik ordered court officer, Stan Kulpa, to clear the court.

The next case in the news from the court involved Bob Jurach and Norman BenMoar, who were robbed on their way home three weeks ago. They gave no defense because of the great size and forboding appearance of the thief. It is believed that the thief was the infamous Pam Waldren alias "Phantom Robbin."

Next I turned to the society page. There I found an announcement of a grand ball given by a wealthy socialite, Bonnie Rock. She will introduce a new dance step which will be demonstrated by those well-known high-steppers, Nan Stenstrom and John Ell, to the music of Pete Williams and his band.

Miss Rock's gatherings are always attended by the very best people. Joan Fuetsch and Peggy Carson, just having returned from skiing at St. Moritz, dropped in for a while. However, they were unable to enjoy their usual evening of gaiety because of various broken bones and sprains suffered during their holiday. They were attended by two other guests: nurse, Mary Lee and pharmacist, Terry Goodwin.

Another "party of the season" was given by Sheila Flanagan. There are always people from many walks of life at Miss Flanagan's parties. Ethel Plourde, this year's Coronation Queen, will make her appearance, and Pat Lattora, back from one of her jaunts around the world, is also expected. Arthur Williams, United States Ambassador to the United Nations will be attending. Also from high political circles, Judy Stern, America's first singing vice-president will entertain, ably accompanied on the piano by Linda Pelton.

Another high point of the evening will be a fashion show narrated by Elaine Bacinskas, with Nancy Miller, Cathy Calabretta, Mary D'Esopo, Lyn McMillan, Sue Sperandio, and Donna Wynings modeling. They will be wearing the newest creations of fashion designer, Bev Nielsen.

Cookie Mooney, head of this year's Charity Bazaar, sold her widest and floppiest hats to Sandra Donaluk, Mary Anne Grossi, and Stevie Lormore. Judy Hartzsch and Mary Ann Black were loaded down with cookies and cakes to sell, ably assisted by Martha Bois and Linda Adoff, now house mothers at a Trinity fraternity house.

Roxanne Cruz came to advertise her new coffee house, "The Floor Between the Upstairs and the Downstairs." Decorator, Mike Duffy and poet, Judy Bernstein accompanied Miss Cruz. Sheila DiTomasso and Sally Gozzo promised to be their first customers, accompanied by Petrina Sylvestri and Pat Tilley.

"Dear Donna," the advice column written by Donna O'Connell, contained a very interesting article. A teacher asked the answer to the problem of smoking among young people. The letter was signed by first-grade teachers, Nancy Weiant and Carolyn Gold.

Today's fashion column written by Devra Kaplan, told of the rising hemline and the falling neckline. An accompanying photograph showed a good compromise point as modeled by Marilyn Kearns, New York's busiest businesswoman.

As I turned the pages to reach the entertainment section, I discovered a full-page ad featuring many people I recognized. Maureen Angelo and Maria Attenello were advertising for Betty Crocker. Chief taste-testers, Virginia Beaudoin and Ginny Battiston were also shown at their enjoyable work.

Winners of the Betty Crocker cooking awards were announced by last year's first-prize winner, Mary Kadish. They were Terry Vivolo, first prize; Linda Ring, second prize; and Connie Beeks, third prize.

Another ad that caught my eye was in the Real Estate Section. It showed a beautiful home in the best section of town. The agents were Jim and Phil Montano. Their close competitors John Griffin, and Bob Gemme had an ad directly beside it which offered a similar home.

In the Financial Section, Al Sidney and Bill Walsh, heads of World Products, Consolidated, announced a split of their stock through broker Fred Andresen. This caused a huge upswing in their stock, a majority of which was purchased by financiers, Paul Morin, Jean Pittman, and Richard Bourbeau.

Many diplomats were in the Entertainment Section. Jim McKeown and Ed Shepler, our Ambassadors to Ireland and England, were photographed enjoying the tunes of charmer Jud'e Rosenblum. Toast-master Bill Tinkler asked the diplomats to stand up for applause. Dave Pickman and Roger Schwartz, Ambassadors to Germany and France were also discovered in the audience.

At the Club '62, sultry Sandy Schaeffer sang to record crowds, accompanied by Cuban bongo player, Ricky, alias Al Gamer. Master of ceremonies Elliott Milstein was hard-put to silence the audience's requests for more numbers.

In the Television Section, Caryl Edelson's new situation comedy was announced. She and Joyce Nordstrom have high hopes for their new show.

Also in the T.V. Section were pictures of jackpot winners, Mary Potter and Donna Carney. They won trips to Paris from the "Once in A Lifetime" show moderated by Christine Harris.

The World Ballet Theater announced a repeat performance by Sandy Hebert after a triumphant tour of the globe with manager Steve Horne.

On the Sports Page, the 1984 Summer Olympics were being reviewed from Stockholm, Sweden, by Pat Attenello and Ira Cameron, and from Buenos Aires by Jimmy Steinberg and John Budaj. Gold medal winner in basketball was the American team, made up of Richie Weaver-bey, Wayne Wood, Richie Holmes, Sol Cicero and Don Harris. Sportscaster Jeff Lee predicted General Smith and Burt Gowen as other top competitors.

Paul Volpe and Sharon Ayers won gold medals for the United States for their superior skiing ability. And in Forest Hills, Bea Bruist became the first woman tennis player ever to win the Davis Cup. Also, the U.S. has pinned its hopes on Lester Scruse, Jim Sinclair and Mike Capella for medals in track.

In the National Open Sports Car Races, Jimmy Piascik, Ken Mattil, and Al Roberts have been picked as winners by sports commentators Al Mercier and Marv Wolman. Ray Koza and John Keating are competing in the relay race against their long-time rivals, Jan Raddar and Jimmy DeNapoli, driving a car owned by Richard Larenson, millionaire car enthusiast.

In another part of the world, the Australian Grand Prix was being held. Ray Smith is the favorite, but Ken Wheeler also has many backers, announcer Ken Colton reports. In the relay races, he picked Jimmy Elrick and John Lord to win, with Gary Seger and Bobby Beman in close second place. It is believed that Russ French and Bill Fuss, new entrants in the Grand Prix, may have a secret engine in the car, which is owned by the John Eickler Corporation. The engine is believed to have been built by Jim York and Steve Grobard, well-known "scientists of the automobile."

In the Comic Section, Howard Jensen's hilarious comic strip was again featured. Since Howard joined the newspaper chain owned by Al Levine and Charlie Liebler, subscriptions have skyrocketed.

Turning to the Editorial Page, I discovered another fine column by Elaine Menchel, Editor of the World Gazette. Today Miss Menchel was praising the work of physicians Rita Goldstein and Danny Fine. She said that their work in developing the peace-time uses of the radium bomb has made the world a better, safer place in which to live.

In the Literary Section, Ted Youlovsky's newest book was reviewed by the Gazette's Marilyn Plourde. As usual, Mr. Youlovsky's novel received mostly praise from all his reviewers.

Seeing the names of all my old classmates brought back many memories of Bloomfield High. I immediately took out my old Tattler and had quite a few good laughs from our former appearance. I imagine many of my classmates did the same after reading the World Gazette and seeing how far we have come from our high school days.

SOCCER

The Bloomfield High School Soccer Team ended its 1961 season with a record of 7 wins, 6 losses and 1 tie.

The team was sparked by the impressive goal-shooting abilities of Alan "Scot" Godlin and co-captain Bill Tinkler. Scot ended the season scoring 11 goals with Bill chipping in with 10.

We scored a total of 28 goals for an average of 2 per game, while holding our opponents to 1.3 goals per game. Our defence was sparked by the great play of Jeff Lee, Dave Redmond, Bruce Aschenbach and co-captain Joe Piscatella. Coach Yaconiello and the team showed great sportsmanship and promise for years to come.

BASKETBALL

This year was our first year as a class "B" school and we made it a good one. With co-captains "Jake" Holmes and Don Harris the team rolled to a 15-4 regular season record with a 12-4 record with class "B" competition. Both "Jake" and Don scored over 20 points per game and were given able assistance by seniors Wayne Wood, Sol Cicero, and Rich Weaver-Bey. Our bench strength comprised of Les Hinckley, Steve Moisuk, Chet Williams, Ronnie Simmons and Mike Elrick. Jake and Don were also honored as members of the Charter Oak Conference All-Star Team. Donnie also was made a member of the first team class "B" all-state team.

We started off the season in great fashion with wins over Simsbury 70-54 and St. Anthony's 81-62. The team was well prepared for our next game which was the big one with Windsor Locks, but as it turned out we were defeated very easily 76-44 despite a great performance by Rich Weaver-Bey.

We won our next three games handily with wins over Suffield 75-46, James Memorial of Simsbury 60-57 and Ellsworth 63-50. Our next game was by far the most exciting game of the season and one which all who saw it will always remember. The game at Windsor Locks saw Steve Moisuk's great last second shot not count and having the Raiders beat us in overtime 62-59. We coasted to another string of victories before being upended by E. O. Smith 67-63. In our last six games we beat Suffield, Goodwin Tech in a game which became rough at times, Ellsworth, Berlin, St. Thomas Aquinas before finally losing to St. Thomas. We ended up in second place in the C.O.C. and finally prepared for the State Tournament.

C.I.A.C. TOURNEY

We entered the class "B" tourney for the first time in the school's history being rated in the 11th spot among 16 schools.

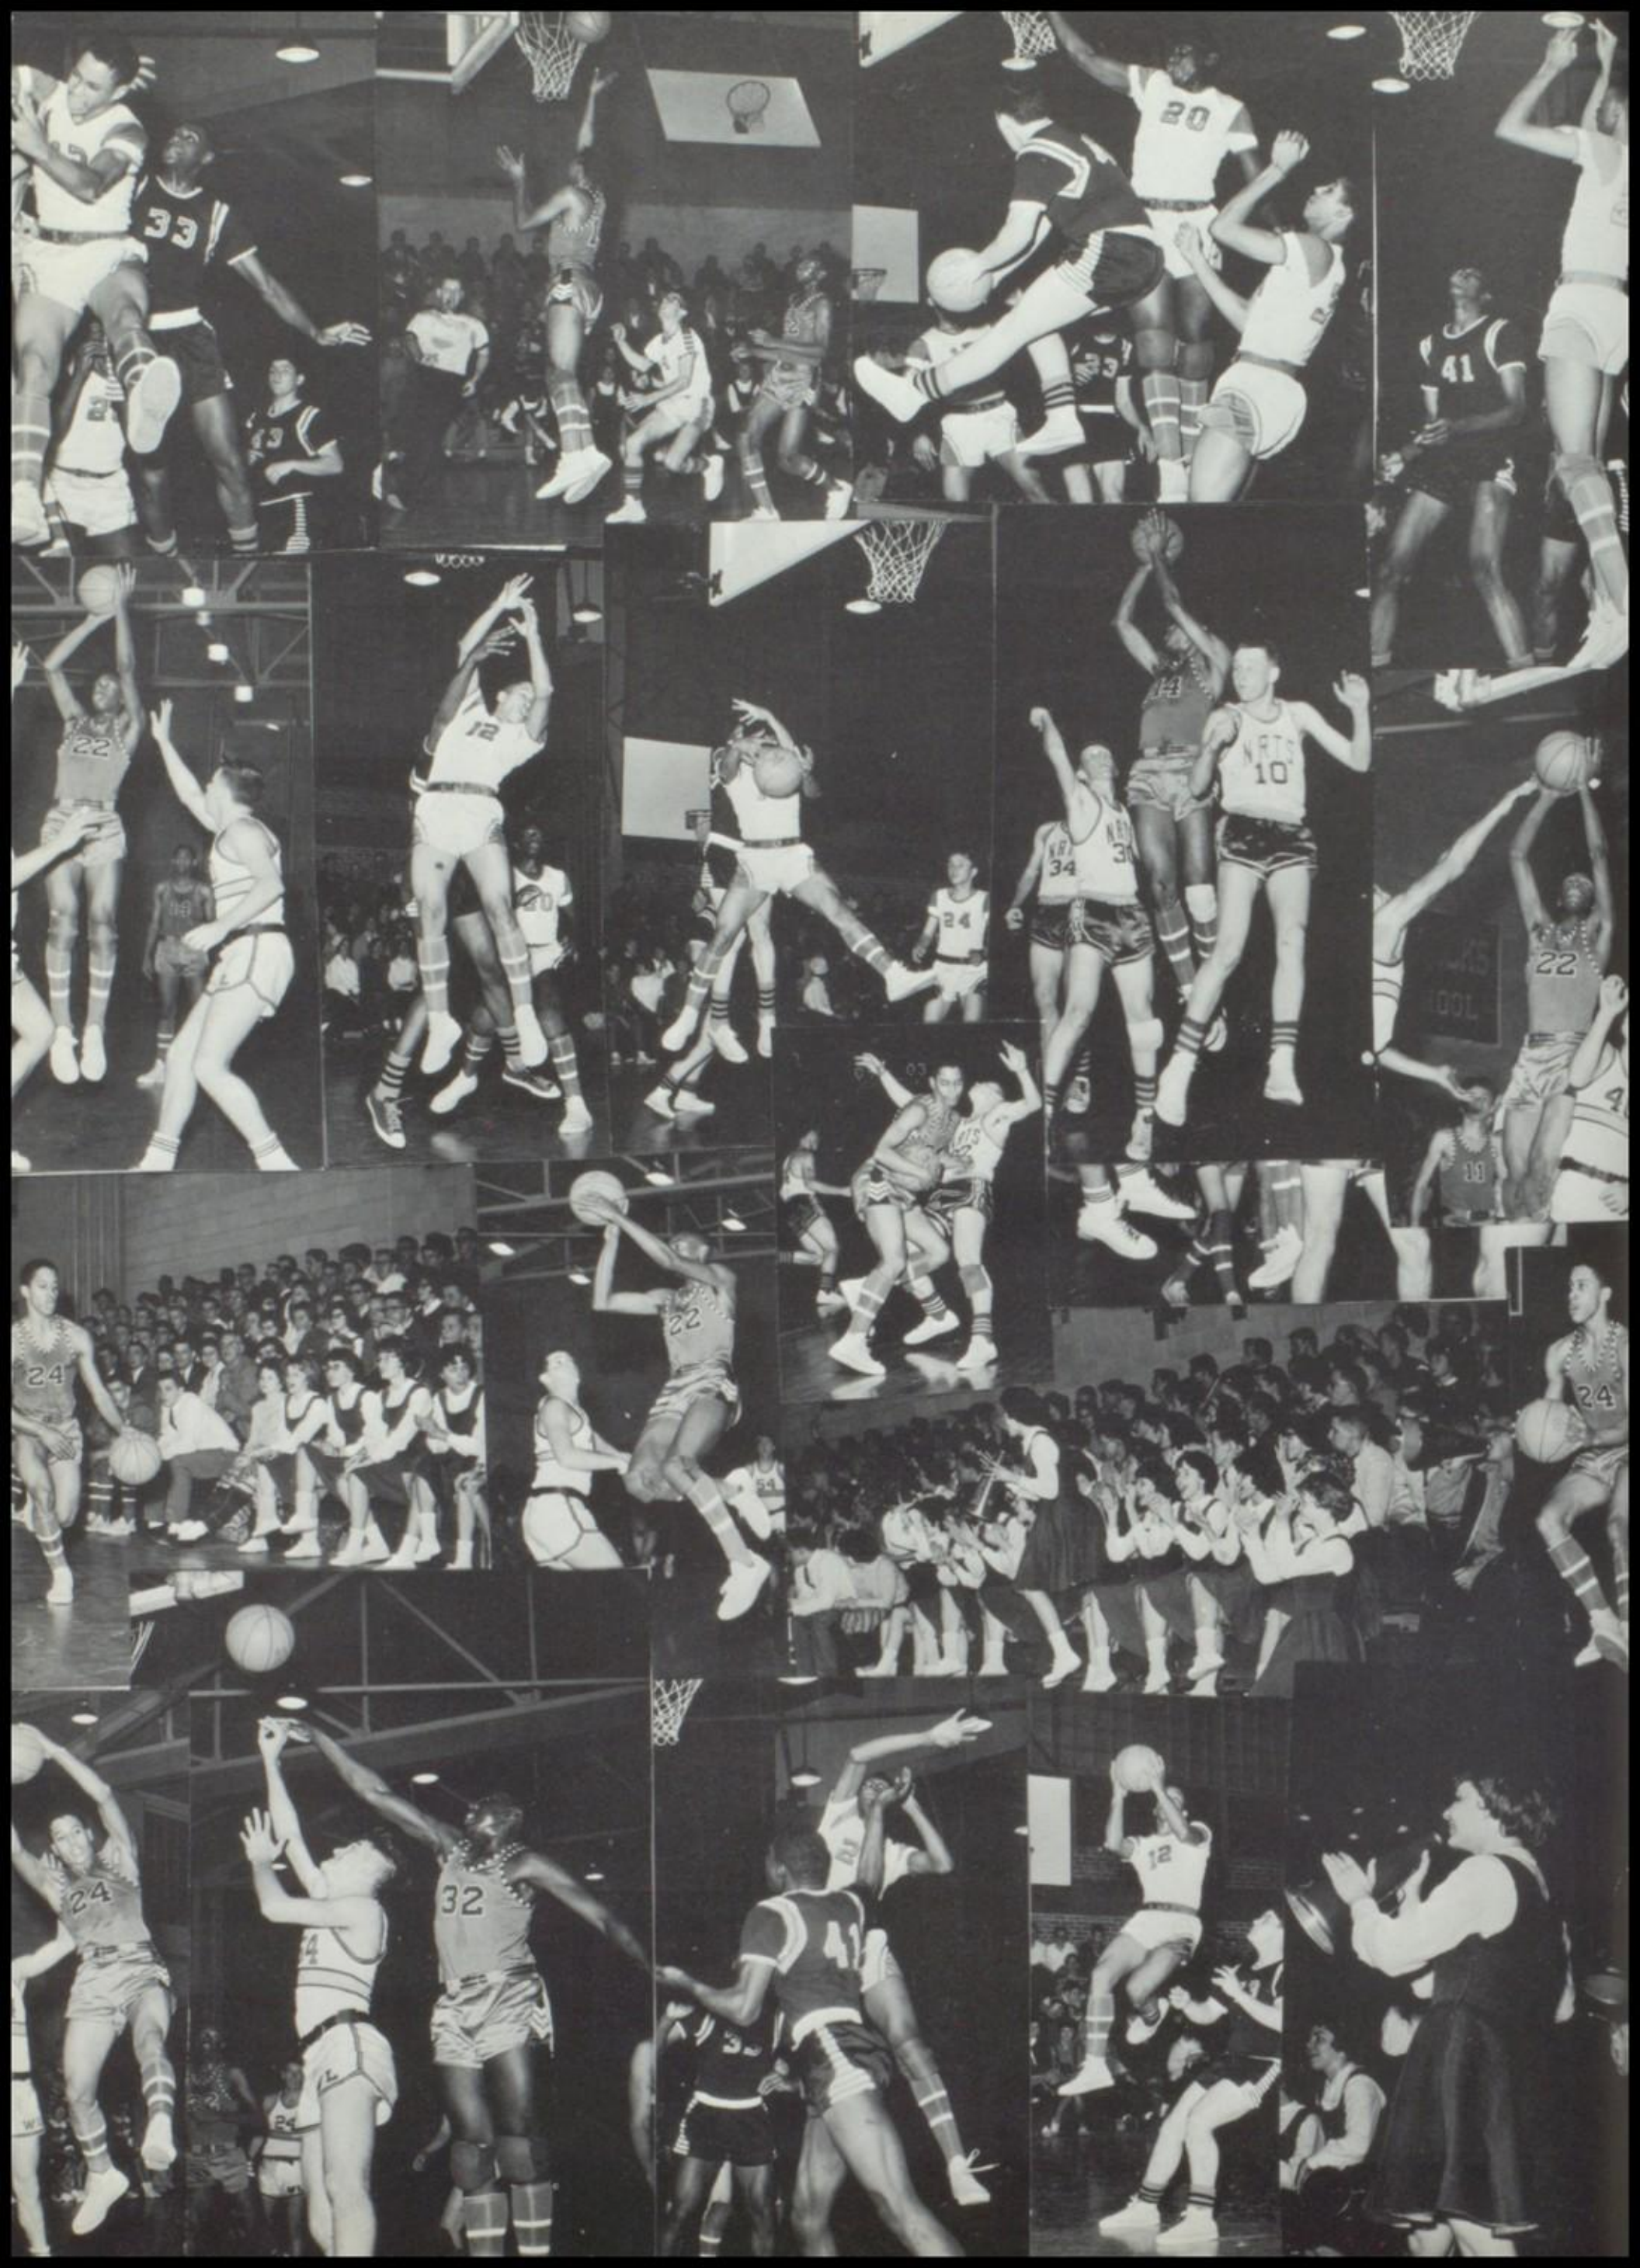

As our first big test we faced a strong unbeaten Norwich Tech quintet who were rated 3rd. With Coach Schiavone taking over for ailing Coach Paterno we started out by surging to a 23-14 first quarter lead and were never overtaken. Led by Don Harris who scored 18 points in the first half we lead 45-30. Despite a desperate fourth quarter rally by Tech we held on for a 68-62 victory. High scorers were Harris with 23, Jake Holmes with 19 and Rich Weaver-Bey with 13.

This put the Warhawks in a quarter final game with tough Newington.

Kneeling: G. Taylor, M. Elrick, T. Denson, J. Cahill, J. Milward, D. Kantor. Standing: Mr. Schiavone—coach, G. Hall, J. Miner, P. Christian, A. James, G. Yost, W. Rapp, J. Crespan, M. Girard and L. Steinberg—mgr.

This game proved to be the most exciting game of the season for the able Warhawks. After trailing at half-time 34-29 we fought back and forced a 59-59 overtime, after trailing for most of the first overtime we rallied to tie again; after 2 more periods of the same we finally were defeated on a last second shot. Don was scorer with 29 points.

It was a very good season for the Warhawks and we should be proud of the fine 16-5 record fashioned by the team.

BASEBALL

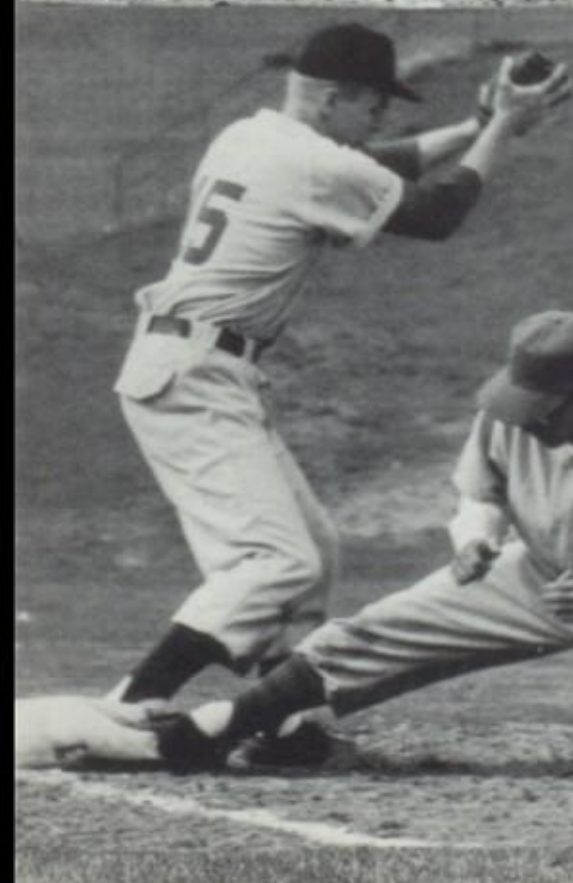

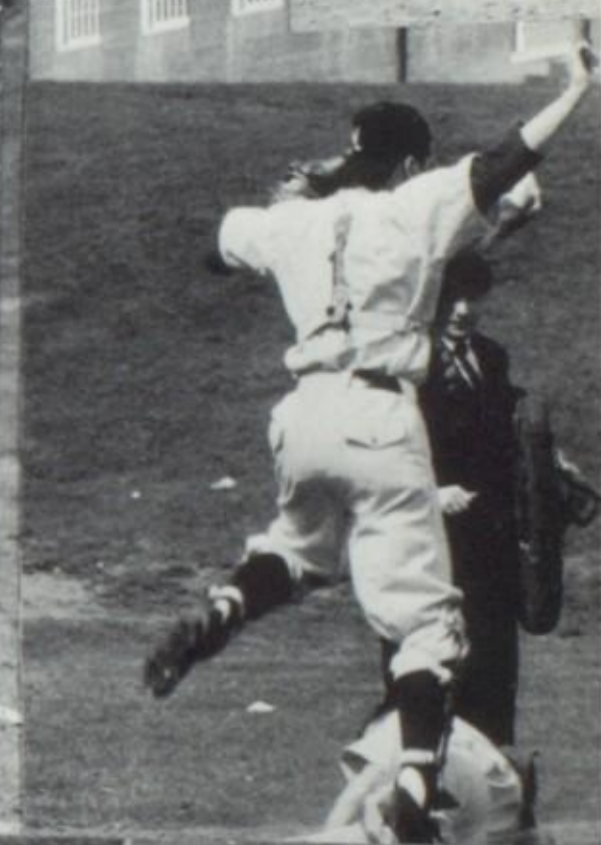

Baseball in 1961 at Bloomfield started out with a new head coach, Mr. Hart. The ball club played hard and ended up with a fine 7-5 record.

The team was sparked by the great hitting of Joe Piscatella, who won the batting crown and by ace Steve Horne. The team showed great defensive abilities in a tight field comprising of Jeff Lee, Joe Piscatella, Steve Horne, and Ray Koza. The outfield was covered by Dave Story, John Lord, and Ed Irving. The job of pitching the strikes was taken up by Bill Walker, Pat Syme and Les Hinckley. Handling the pitches behind the plate were Mike Capella and Bill Walker. This year's team looks promising with the return of six of the regulars.

Sparked by co-captains Bea Bruist and Lissa Merritt, the girls' field hockey team had an enjoyable season. The best game of the season was a decisive 7-5 victory over Granby. During the season Bea Bruist and Gene Warring were the only scorers. Bea Bruist did a tremendous job scoring in every game. Lissa Merritt, Cal Gold, Joan Fuetsch, and Gemma Gatti also held important positions and were great assets to the team. The girls put up a good fight considering a good number of players could not play because of illness and injuries throughout the season.

Kneeling: G. Smith, S. Burgess, L. Nielsen, J. Clifford, S. Bower, M. Gallivan, M. Moran, S. Simmons, A. Merritt, B. Bruist, M. Hills, P. Tilley, Mrs. Martin—Coach.

GIRLS' VARSITY BASKETBALL

The girls' varsity basketball team finished their season with a very successful record. Co-captains Jean Clifford and Linda Nelson lead their team to seven victories with only two losses. Bea Bruist and Maureen Hills were top scorers, with Lissa Merritt and Pat Tilley also contributing to the scoring column. The guards, Joan Clifford, Linda Neilsen, and Mary Ellen Gallivan demonstrated excellent teamwork along with outstanding rebounding and intercepting ability. The most exciting game of the season was the 40-38 victory over Ellsworth's previously undefeated team. This was the game which climaxed four years of basketball for many of the seniors. It was a spectacular finish for the team! The junior varsity team had an undefeated season until the last game with Ellsworth, which they lost 16-29. This year's junior varsity team did exceptionally well, with Nancy Kelly and Dotty Pease as the high scorers, while Dale Fugit, Barby Bates and Jane Merritt were outstanding guards. It was a very exciting season for both teams.

JUNIOR VARSITY

Row 2: S. Simmons, M. O'Connor, B. Dane, J. Merritt.

Standing: Miss Abbe, G. Smith, B. Barnard, S. Bower, S. Burgess, K. Berch, D. Pease, B. Handleman.

1961 SOFTBALL

The 1961 softball team was led by co-captains, Pat Tilley and Gail Sparrell. The season was an unsuccessful one; the closest game was that with Simsbury which we lost by a score of 19-20. Although the team did not win any games, the girls had a lot of fun and greatly benefited from the experience. Gail Sparrell played extremely well during the season, and received the Outstanding Player award. The only member that graduated from the team was Barbara Barnard. Since practically the whole team was coming back, the outlook for the 1962 season looked very bright. The girls expressed hope that the '62 season would be marked by at least several victories, and that '62 would be a fun-filled season as well.
